

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

College of Engineering
Ralph E. Martin Department of Chemical Engineering

Interested in getting research experience this summer?

Apply to the University of Arkansas Separations REU Summer Program!

The University of Arkansas Department of Chemical Engineering offers a 10-week, in person summer Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) program focused on Separations Processes. This program is open to US citizens or permanent residents enrolled in U.S. institutions majoring in chemical engineering, bioengineering, biology, chemistry, materials science, physics, or related fields.

Apply here!

Applications due:
February 1, 2025

Questions? Email
chegreu@uark.edu

For more information visit:
<https://chemical-engineering.uark.edu/reu/>

Program Dates: May 17-July 26, 2025

Participants will receive:

- $6,000 stipend for 10 weeks
- Hands on laboratory experience
- Mentoring by university professors and graduate students in the field
- Field trip to visit an industrial facility
 - On-campus housing
- The chance to experience life as a Razorback!